HUNGKONG, DECEMBER 1 OTH, 1885; THE anti-Chinese agitation is growing and spreading on the Pacific coast, and bids fair to lead to the raising of a serious international question with China, which cannot fail incidentally to affect all the Treaty Powers. - If Chinamen dwelling peaceably in the territory of the United States are to be evicted on the part of the United States Govern-· from their homes, hounded from place to ment to maintain its conventions with place, and prohibited carrying on their or. foreign powers is a contingency, so far as we dinary occupations, will they be entitled in know, unprovided for anywhere, and yet each individual case to receive compensation foreign powers are likely to infer this imfrom the Washington Government? It is a difficult situation, ernment, or to compensation for the destruction of their property in any anti-foreign | The situation is indeed a difficult one. The riot, such as that which took place at Shameen? The treatment of foreigners in China must necessarily be to some extent affected by the treatment meted out to Chi-__namen abroad, and from this point of view alone, if from no other, the action of the white railways, and the chances, of securing for population in Washington Territory is/greatly to be regretted and deprecated. Fortunately there had been nothing in the trade nature of a repetition of the Rock Springs horror, but the Chinese were none the less to be cleared out bag and baggage. A formal agreement had, according to a despatch of the 5th November, been entered into, by which Ningpo. the Chinese agreed to leave the town. The labourers were to go at once, and the merchants and property-holders as soon as they could dispose of their property, but within a few weeks. In return, the citizens had agreed to aid them in their preparations for leaving and to protect life and property while they remained. Those who had not money were to have their passage to San-Francisco paid, and a subscription for that purpose was being raised. John Bright has written a letter to Blennerhassett, who is contesting Manchester for the House of Commons, condoling with him on the opposition of Irishmen of that city who joined the Tories instead of supporting the Liberals. The Tories, Bright says, refused to grant concessions in Ireland, while the Liberals were willing to remove her grievances. England, he continued, has in the past treated Ireland cruelly but now Ireland's greatest enemies were her professed leaders, who incite her people to disturb the peace and destroy industry. Bright hopes there are still patriotic Irishmen ready to make an effort to retain harmony within Eng-

THE ELIZA ARMSTRONG ABDUCTION CASE. The trial of Stead and other defendants in the Armstrong abduction case was resumed to-day before Justice Lopes. The Judge in his charge to the jury urged that they should bring in a verdict according to law and not allow personal sympathies to influence their decision. Mr. Stead, Justice Lopes said, filled the Pall Mall Gazette with filthy, disgusting articles of an obscene nature, the publication of which was not connected with the present charge. The only material question for the jury to decide was whether the child, Eliza Armstrong, was taken away from home against her father's will. They were also to determine whether the mother sold her child to prisoners as alleged by defendants. The jury retired at 3.40 p.m. The foreman asked the Judge before the jury left their seats to allow them to distinguish between Mrs. Jarrett and Mr. Stead as to their criminal liability in ease the jury concluded that Mrs. Jarrett had disobeyed the instructions of Mr. Stead. The jury returned to the Court-room at 6.40 o'clock with their verdict. They agreed that Stead and Mrs. Jarrett took Eliza Armstrong from her home against her father's will, but could not agree as to whether Mrs. Jarrett obtained the child by false pretences. They also agreed that the mother did not sell her shild as solleged by defence, and that Booth and Jacques were no parties to the abduction.
